

Ardrahan National School Accessibility Statement

Ardrahan National School is committed to ensuring that our website is accessible to all users, including people with disabilities. The school endeavours to ensure that this website complies with accessibility standards, in line with the requirements of the Department of Education ICT Grant Circular and the European Union (Accessibility of Websites and Mobile Applications of Public Sector Bodies) Regulations 2020.

Compliance Status

This website aims to be compliant with Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 Level AA. Ardrahan NS has used funding provided under the Department of Education ICT Grant to support the development, maintenance and accessibility of the school website.

While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accessibility, some content may not yet fully meet accessibility standards.

Measures to Support Accessibility

In line with Department of Education guidance, Ardrahan NS has taken the following measures:

- Clear and consistent navigation across the website
- Use of readable fonts and appropriate colour contrast where possible
- Logical heading structures to support screen-reader use
- Alternative text for images where feasible
- Ongoing review of website content to improve accessibility

Non-Accessible Content

The school acknowledges that some content may not be fully accessible, including:

- Older PDF documents or scanned files
- Legacy content uploaded prior to accessibility review

- Third-party content or plugins not fully within the school's control

Where possible, such content will be updated or replaced, subject to available resources and expertise.

Feedback and Contact Information

If you experience any difficulty accessing content on this website or require information in an alternative format, please contact the school and we will endeavour to assist.
